Feeling so distracted lately—can't seem to focus on anything!

Need to get back on track with my projects: Netflix movie suggestion and some minor React builds.

Time to refocus and make some progress!

Looks like I'm on my own! Finally made my Kaggle account, Time to figure it out the old-fashioned way—one dataset at a time.
Still looking for that guide, though—anyone?

Recently completed my AI & Data Science internship with a focus on Prompt Engineering!
It's been an incredible journey.
